

Enterprise Systems Corporation Deploys Nortel Networks BCM Solution with VOIP Remote Office For Medical Center Ear, nose and Throat

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Jonathan Sherwin
BCM Supervisor
713-343-1292
jsherwin@enter-sys.com

<http://www.enter-sys.com>

HOUSTON, TEXAS – February, 2005 - Enterprise Systems Corporation Deploys Nortel Networks Business Communications Manager (BCM) hosting a Remote IP office for Medical Center Ear, Nose and Throat.

Utilizing the WAN features of the BCM, ESC has deployed a Passport Router with Bay Stack for a full IP remote office solution for new office at Park Plaza Professional Building. Looking ahead to the second quarter of 2005 ESC will deploy a professional call center for scheduling and appointments.

ABOUT ENTERPRISE SYSTEMS CORPORATION

Houston, Texas Based Enterprise Systems Corporation services and supports Nortel Networks voice and data solutions including Meridian 1, Succession, Call Pilot, Symposium, Meridian Mail, Norstar and BCM. Competencies include TDM circuit switched telephony, VoIP and wireless engineering and deployment.

ABOUT Medical Center Ear, Nose and Throat

Medical Center Ear, Nose and throat is the ENT specialist for Methodist and St. Luke's Hospital in the Texas Medical Center in Houston Texas. Specializing in Allergy, Audiology, Hearing Aids, Tinnitus Retraining, Vestibular Testing and Videostroboscopy, Medical Center Ear, Nose and Throat has patient care that is second to none. With six very highly trained and accomplished Doctors on Staff they always deliver what the patient needs.